During the period from March 1992 to March 1993, I did some fieldwork on Chinese society in Philippines and interviewed some persons in Manila and Cebu. In May 2002, my graduate student and I visited the Philippines again, as a result of that, <The Investigation on the Chinese Society in Cebu and Davao in the Philippines> was finished. Based on these materials, this article introduces the value of our interview records and investigation reports, meanwhile, I put forward my unique ideas on Chinese Filipino and their society.
