The 2009 NACSA Annual Conference

San Francisco, California, August 7, 2009

The 2009 NACSA Annual Conference will be held on August 7 in San Francisco, following the great tradition of our association to hold a one-day mini-conference prior to the annual meetings of the American Sociological Association (August 8-11, 2009). The aim of this year's conference is broadly defined to be two-fold: to promote scholarly research on Chinese society, culture, economy, and immigrant life in the greater Chinese Diaspora, and to continue building bridges and guanxi among scholars of Chinese heritage and non-Chinese ancestry in North America, Asia, and other parts of the world.

Theme(s)

The themes of this year's conference are otherwise open. We call for submissions of regular papers/panels and will let other theme(s) emerge from the submissions. We encourage scholars and graduate students from mainland China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, and the greater Chinese Diaspora to submit papers/panels in either English or Chinese.

Sessions

The 2009 mini-conference will be holding 5-6 concurrent sessions and a special session, depending on the ASA space allocation.

Submission Deadline: March 25, 2009

Submit your paper or abstract via email to: Eric Fong <fong@chass.utoronto.ca>

- Individual papers: Complete papers or paper abstracts will be considered. Paper abstracts may be 1-2 pages but must contain sufficient detail and evidence of timely completion for the program committee in its decision making. Please give all authors' and coauthors' names, organizational affiliations, and email addresses.
- Panels: Any NACSA member can organize a panel. Each panel should consist of two to three presenters and a discussant. The panel organizer must submit a proposal specifying the theme of the panel along with the summaries/abstracts of the papers selected. Pease give all panelists' names, organizational affiliations, and email addresses.
- Submissions may be in English or in Chinese. The program committee assumes that the language used in individual papers/abstracts or panel proposals would be the same as the language used in presentation at the annual conference. Papers should be formatted as Word documents and sent as an attached file.

Acceptance Announcement: May 15, 2009

- Email announcements to all organizers/discussants/authors about the tentative panels to which their presentations are assigned
- A formal acceptance letter is to be provided to all the authors for their travel funding application and/or visa application purposes.
- Visit <http://www.nacsaglobal.net/> for a tentative annual conference program after June 15 of 2009.

Full Paper Submission Deadline: July 15, 2009

- A full paper is to be submitted to the organizer/presider/discussant of the assigned session.

Contact Persons

Registration Fee

- The registration fee for each participant is US$10. Fees may be paid in form of a personal check or a bank draft, payable to “NACSA,” via regular mail prior to July 15, 2009 or on site. Checks should be sent to the treasurer: Professor Dongxiao Liu, Department of Sociology, Texas A&M University, TAMU 4351, College Station, TX 77840-4351, U.S.A. Email: dliu8@neo.tamu.edu

Travel Funds

- All participants will be responsible for their own traveling to and from the conference. NACSA would be happy to assist you in applying for travel funds.

Membership Renewal

Current members should renew their 2009 membership. $15 for regular member, $10 for associate member, $5 for student member, and $300 life member. Both current and new members may fill out their membership forms (see attached) and mail them with their membership dues in checks or bank drafts, payable to “NACSA,” to Professor Dongxiao Liu, Department of Sociology, Texas A&M University, TAMU 4351, College Station, TX 77840-4351, U.S.A. Email: dliu8@neo.tamu.edu

Final Note

- You are encouraged to distribute this Call for Papers widely to your colleagues, students, fellow students, and friends who may be interested in joining the NACSA.

cc: Article V. MEMBERSHIP of the NACSA By law

Persons who subscribe to the stated purposes of NACSA, who agree to abide by the bylaws of the association, and who has graduate training in sociology or any of the social sciences or the social aspects of law, health, and medicine, qualify for NACSA membership. Membership shall be divided into three categories: Regular, Associate, and Student. Regular members shall be eligible to vote, hold office, and serve on the Board of Directors. Regular members shall pay annual dues of $15. Associate members are persons who work as sociologists or social scientists outside of North America and may choose to pay a lower fee of $10. Associate members shall have voting rights but are not eligible to hold office and serve on the Board of Directors. Student members are full-time graduate students in sociology or the social sciences and pay the student membership dues of $5. Student members are not eligible to vote, hold office, and serve on the Board of Directors.

Membership dues shall be paid annually to the association on January 1 of each year. Instead of annual payment of membership dues, a single payment for life (Life Membership) of $300 may be accepted. Once paid, the Life members shall not have to pay annual membership dues and shall have the same voting rights as Regular members. Benefits for dues-paying members include receiving two issues of NACSA's newsletter a year, being entitled a discount registration fee and free lunch for future NACSA conferences, rights to vote for NACSA officers and Board members, and receiving a periodically updated NACSA membership directory.
